Annual PREA Review for Correction Action pursuant to PREA Standard 115.228
January 1, 2021 to December 31, 2021

The Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA) of 2003 mandates that correctional facilities, jails, and prison provide a copy of their annual review (PREA Standard 115.288) of all related PREA investigations, determinations, and corrective actions. This report is based on the Survey of Sexual Victimization for calendar year 2019. During calendar year 2020 the daily average population for the Roy K. Robb Community Corrections Facility was 73, with a maximum bed capacity of 108.

Generally speaking, PREA reports fall under four classifications: 1. Inmate on inmate nonconsensual sexual harassment; 2. Inmate on inmate nonconsensual sexual misconduct/abuse; 3. Staff on inmate sexual harassment; and 4. Staff on inmate sexual misconduct/abuse. The following is a breakdown of the four individual PREA report classification for calendar year 2021:

1. Number of resident on resident nonconsensual sexual harassment PREA reports:
   Determination: Substantiated:0 Unsubstantiated:2 Unfounded:0
   Corrective Action: Referred to law enforcement: 0 Administrative:2

2. Number of resident on resident nonconsensual sexual misconduct/abuse PREA reports:
   Determination: Substantiated:0 Unsubstantiated:0 Unfounded:0
